STEVEN HESLA TO GIVE PIANO RECITAL

Steven Hesla, assistant professor of music at the University of Montana, will give a free piano recital Friday, Feb. 19, at the Music Recital Hall on the UM campus. at 8 p.m.

Hesla will play Toccata in E minor by Bach; Sonata in Ab major, Op. 110 by Beethoven; ~~Images~~ Images, Book I by Debussy and Sonata No. 3 in A minor, Op. 28 by Prokofieff.

Before joining the UM faculty, Hesla served as an instructor and assistant professor at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. He has studied with John Browning at the Berkshire music festival in Tanglewood, Mass. and Gyorgy Sebok in Switzerland.

Since moving to Missoula, Hesla has performed extensively both on and off campus and has served as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the state and region. During the 1975-76 academic year he was on professional leave to concertize and to give master classes and workshops throughout the Midwest.

Hesla recently performed at Butte where his playing was called "superb" by local critics.
